

Sustainable Growth Analysis

Which factors of a country effects its GDP?

Executive Summary

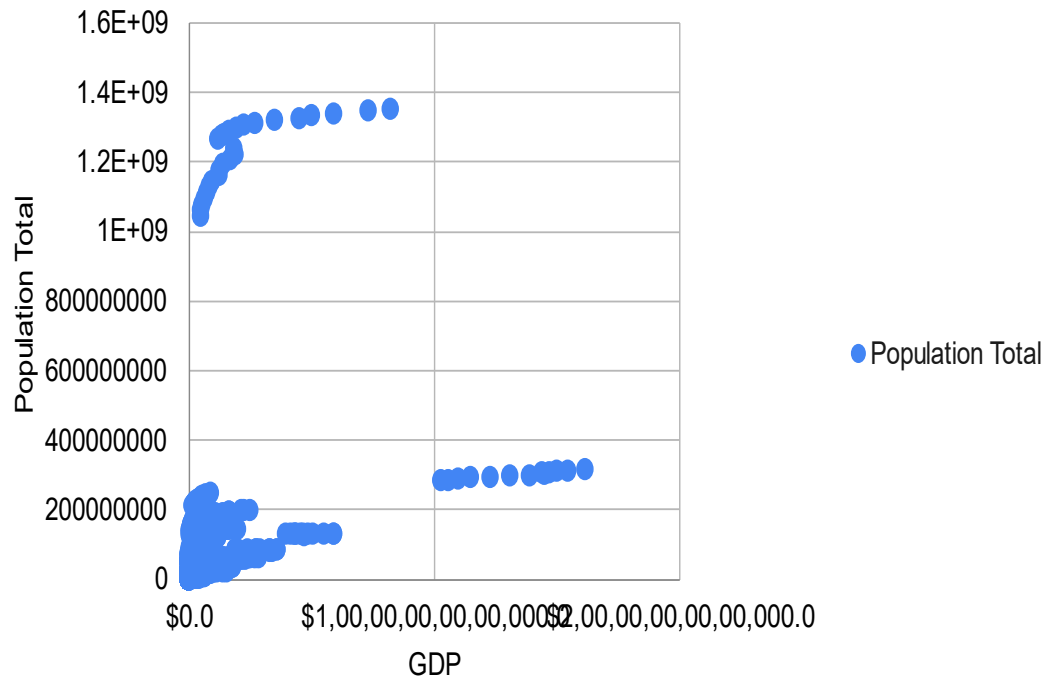

Targeting factors for sustainable growth of a country

- . For Analysis World Economic Indicator Data Set was taken and different factors which impact GDP were processed.
- . We see that Birth rate and mortality of a country has a negative correlation with GDP.
- . Health expenditure per capita has positive correlation with GDP which shows good amount spent on public health improves the GDP.
- . Higher the lending interest higher will be the GDP of the country.
- . Countries having higher business taxes have high GDP as compare to countries having lower business taxes.

Annexure

Targeting factors for sustainable growth of a country

Population Total vs. GDP

GDP vs. Health Exp/Capita

